The Indigenisation and Economic Empowerment Act [Chapter 14:33] (No. 14 of 2007) is amended in section 3(6) by the deletion of "company" and the substitution of "business".

¹ Note by Veritas. Proviso inserted during Committee Stage on the motion of the Minister of Justice and Legal Affairs. The Minister explained that this was to "make it clear ... due process is not being undermined ... there is no way the Civil Aviation Authority could execute or recover that debt without going through the due process of the court, that is, issuing summons and so forth. The amendments ... will make that clearer so that there is no shadow of doubt that in doing so they must follow the due process of the law."

² Note by Veritas. It appears that the need to gazette a statutory instrument fixing a date of commencement for the National Biotechnology Authority Act was overlooked and that the Authority was nevertheless established and has been operational in fact, if not in law, for some time. This amendment seeks to put that right, but with due recognition of the Constitution's prohibition on the retroactive creation of criminal liability.

¹⁴ Note by Veritas. This clause backdates provision for bills of costs in High Court cases to be prepared in accordance with the US dollar tariff enacted by SI 12/2011; the SI replaced the previous tariff which was in Zimbabwe dollars. The 1st February 2009 was when the multi-currency regime was inaugurated. A question arises: Why doesn't the clause include the magistrates court tariff enacted by SI 2/2011? On 6th April the Minister told members of the House of Assembly that the clause covered both High Court and magistrates court cases.
